

BASEBALL EXTRA.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA.

LONGSTREET

Winner of the Great Match Race at Morris Park To-Day,

AND OF THE $12,500 STAKES.

Thousands Gather to See the Struggle Between Turf Giants.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.
MORRIS PARK RACE COURSE, Aug. 1.—The great match race between Mr. D. T. Purfield's Tenny and Longstreet's Longstreet, at a mile and quarter, for $5,000 a side, with $2,500 added, has been run.

The result is as follows:

FOURTH RACE.

Match; $5,000 a side, with $2,500 added; one and a quarter.

Starters. W.M. Parker, Straight, Pace; 2 Longstreet, 1st, Hamilton, 2nd; 2 Tenny, 124, Barnes, 10—out.

Longstreet started in the lead and at the quarter was a length ahead. Time—0.296.

At the half Longstreet led by two lengths. Time—0.504.

At the three-quarters Longstreet led by three lengths. Time—1.175.

At the mile Longstreet led by a length. Time—2.074.

LONGSTREET.

Tenny was favorite at 4 to 5 and Longstreet stood at even money. The money went on Tenny with a whoop and down went his price a point.

The Longstreet money went on in jumps, also, and his price remained steady.

Tenny was the first to appear on the track. He cantered up the hill and then breasted through the last furlong like a whirlwind.

Longstreet appeared a moment later, but he exhibited a great deal of temper and could not be persuaded to move at first, while he did so much through one straight he moved very fast, however.

STORY OF THE GREAT RACE.

The bugle called the horses to the post at 4:20 o'clock.

Longstreet was the first to appear and he was cheered and applauded as he entered by the stand. Tenny appeared shortly afterward and went directly to the post.

They got away on the second break, with Longstreet having a length the best of it.

They ran in this order, close together, to the quarter, with Longstreet still in front and both running under a pull.

Going up the hill it looked as though Tenny had drawn up even terms.

As they swing on the turn on the top of the hill, however, it was seen that Longstreet had increased his advantage to three lengths. Yells of delight went up from his supporters.

At the head of the stretch Barnes commenced to move on Tenny.

Steely little Tenny had gained on the longhill out, until suddenly at the end of the last quarter Hamilton went to whip and the yell went up, "Tenny wins."

Longstreet must have drawn away under the tail of the whip, for suddenly Barnes drew in his lash and swept it down with a crack that sent Tenny to the ground.

The game little horse responded and went up to the post.

Again Barnes went to the whip, and steadily Longstreet drew away.

Tenny was now getting whip and spur without mercy, but the game son of Longhill swept further and further away.

Finally landed under the wire a winner by six lengths, amidst a roar of cheers. Time—2.074.

The Other Races.

Morris Park Race Course, Aug. 1.—With the victory in the great match race between Tenny and Longstreet at Morris Park this afternoon, goes $12,500 and the honor of being the best thoroughbred in training in this country to-day.

The Evening World's prediction that nearly 30,000 people would gather here on the day set for the event was fully verified.

The day dawned fine and clear and the bright sun, undimmed by a single cloud, sent rays of gladness into the hearts of the managers of the Morris Park Association and of all others who had any interest in the great race.

Thousands of people passed speedily through windows at daybreak and then crawled back to their couches satisfied that the race would be run to-day.

The managers of the various street-car lines of the elevated railways of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad and of the ferry-boats and other boats running to Manhattan Island put on extra forces of men,

The EVENING EDITION COLOR.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, AUGUST 1, 1891.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA.

LONGSTREET

Winner of the Great Match Race at Morris Park To-Day,

AND OF THE $12,500 STAKES.

Thousands Gather to See the Struggle Between Turf Giants.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.
MORRIS PARK RACE COURSE, Aug. 1.—The great match race between Mr. D. T. Purfield's Tenny and Longstreet's Longstreet, at a mile and quarter, for $5,000 a side, with $2,500 added, has been run.

The result is as follows:

FOURTH RACE.

Match; $5,000 a side, with $2,500 added; one and a quarter.

Starters. W.M. Parker, Straight, Pace; 2 Longstreet, 1st, Hamilton, 2nd; 2 Tenny, 124, Barnes, 10—out.

Longstreet started in the lead and at the quarter was a length ahead. Time—0.296.

At the half Longstreet led by two lengths. Time—0.504.

At the three-quarters Longstreet led by three lengths. Time—1.175.

At the mile Longstreet led by a length. Time—2.074.

LONGSTREET.

Tenny was favorite at 4 to 5 and Longstreet stood at even money. The money went on Tenny with a whoop and down went his price a point.

The Longstreet money went on in jumps, also, and his price remained steady.

Tenny was the first to appear on the track. He cantered up the hill and then breasted through the last furlong like a whirlwind.

Longstreet appeared a moment later, but he exhibited a great deal of temper and could not be persuaded to move at first, while he did so much through one straight he moved very fast, however.

STORY OF THE GREAT RACE.

The bugle called the horses to the post at 4:20 o'clock.

Longstreet was the first to appear and he was cheered and applauded as he entered by the stand. Tenny appeared shortly afterward and went directly to the post.

They got away on the second break, with Longstreet having a length the best of it.

They ran in this order, close together, to the quarter, with Longstreet still in front and both running under a pull.

Going up the hill it looked as though Tenny had drawn up even terms.

As they swing on the turn on the top of the hill, however, it was seen that Longstreet had increased his advantage to three lengths. Yells of delight went up from his supporters.

At the head of the stretch Barnes commenced to move on Tenny.

Steely little Tenny had gained on the longhill out, until suddenly at the end of the last quarter Hamilton went to whip and the yell went up, "Tenny wins."

Longstreet must have drawn away under the tail of the whip, for suddenly Barnes drew in his lash and swept it down with a crack that sent Tenny to the ground.

The game little horse responded and went up to the post.

Again Barnes went to the whip, and steadily Longstreet drew away.

Tenny was now getting whip and spur without mercy, but the game son of Longhill swept further and further away.

Finally landed under the wire a winner by six lengths, amidst a roar of cheers. Time—2.074.

The Other Races.

Morris Park Race Course, Aug. 1.—With the victory in the great match race between Tenny and Longstreet at Morris Park this afternoon, goes $12,500 and the honor of being the best thoroughbred in training in this country to-day.

The Evening World's prediction that nearly 30,000 people would gather here on the day set for the event was fully verified.

The day dawned fine and clear and the bright sun, undimmed by a single cloud, sent rays of gladness into the hearts of the managers of the Morris Park Association and of all others who had any interest in the great race.

Thousands of people passed speedily through windows at daybreak and then crawled back to their couches satisfied that the race would be run to-day.

The managers of the various street-car lines of the elevated railways of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad and of the ferry-boats and other boats running to Manhattan Island put on extra forces of men, and prepared for the tremendous rush and crush that was to come.

It was almost noon when the first train arrived at Morris Park. There were none of the regular race-givers on board. The first few arrivals were ten sportsmen who, having read the announcement to come early and secure good seats, faithfully followed the injunction.

They plumped themselves on the front seats and stayed there, eating the lunch which thoughtful members of the party had provided.

The next train brought more of them and the crowd grew until it was a steady pouring torrent of humanity that flowed in through the numerous entrances.

Once in the park the sportsmen park, we see, even then, the tide less. But it did not seem very crowded anywhere until one went into the rear.

There the real crush and jam was seen.

This was before the first race began, and the bookies were offering odds on the matches.

Once in the park the sportsmen park, we see, even then, the tide less. But it did not seem very crowded anywhere until one went into the rear.

There the real crush and jam was seen.

This was before the first race began, and the bookies were offering odds on the matches.

Once in the park the sportsmen park, we see, even then, the tide less. But it did not seem very crowded anywhere until one went into the rear.

There the real crush and jam was seen.

This was before the first race began, and the bookies were offering odds on the matches.

Once in the park the sportsmen park, we see, even then, the tide less. But it did not seem very crowded anywhere until one went into the rear.

There the real crush and jam was seen.

This was before the first race began, and the bookies were offering odds on the matches.

Once in the park the sportsmen park, we see, even then, the tide less. But it did not seem very crowded anywhere until one went into the rear.

There the real crush and jam was seen.

This was before the first race began, and the bookies were offering odds on the matches.

Once in the park the sportsmen park, we see, even then, the tide less. But it did not seem very crowded anywhere until one went into the rear.

There the real crush and jam was seen.

This was before the first race began, and the bookies were offering odds on the matches.

Once in the park the sportsmen park, we see, even then, the tide less. But it did not seem very crowded anywhere until one went into the rear.

There the real crush and jam was seen.

This was before the first race began, and the bookies were offering odds on the matches.

Once in the park the sportsmen park, we see, even then, the tide less. But it did not seem very crowded anywhere until one went into the rear.

There the real crush and jam was seen.

This was before the first race began, and the bookies were offering odds on the matches.

Once in the park the sportsmen park, we see, even then, the tide less. But it did not seem very crowded anywhere until one went into the rear.

There the real crush and jam was seen.

This was before the first race began, and the bookies were offering odds on the matches.

Once in the park the sportsmen park, we see, even then, the tide less. But it did not seem very crowded anywhere until one went into the rear.

There the real crush and jam was seen.

This was before the first race began, and the bookies were offering odds on the matches.

Once in the park the sportsmen park, we see, even then, the tide less. But it did not seem very crowded anywhere until one went into the rear.

There the real crush and jam was seen.

This was before the first race began, and the bookies were offering odds on the matches.

Once in the park the sportsmen park, we see, even then, the tide less. But it did not seem very crowded anywhere until one went into the rear.

There the real crush and jam was seen.

This was before the first race began, and the bookies were offering odds on the matches.

Once in the park the sportsmen park, we see, even then, the tide less. But it did not seem very crowded anywhere until one went into the rear.

There the real crush and jam was seen.

This was before the first race began, and the bookies were offering odds on the matches.

Once in the park the sportsmen park, we see, even then, the tide less. But it did not seem very crowded anywhere until one went into the rear.

There the real crush and jam was seen.

This was before the first race began, and the bookies were offering odds on the matches.

Once in the park the sportsmen park, we see, even then, the tide less. But it did not seem very crowded anywhere until one went into the rear.

There the real crush and jam was seen.

This was before the first race began, and the bookies were offering odds on the matches.

Once in the park the sportsmen park, we see, even then, the tide less. But it did not seem very crowded anywhere until one went into the rear.

There the real crush and jam was seen.

This was before the first race began, and the bookies were offering odds on the matches.

Once in the park the sportsmen park, we see, even then, the tide less. But it did not seem very crowded anywhere until one went into the rear.

There the real crush and jam was seen.

This was before the first race began, and the bookies were offering odds on the matches.

Once in the park the sportsmen park, we see, even then, the tide less. But it did not seem very crowded anywhere until one went into the rear.